

Exam #2

This is an open-book, open-notes exam. You may take up to three hours. For each transformation shown, draw detailed arrow-pushing mechanisms for each step, including the explicit chemical structure of every reactant and reagent shown (show every heavy atom- H's not required), all stereochemistry, and all the organic products of each reaction. The abbreviations are exactly as they appear in the publication.

Each problem is worth twenty points.

